ACCESSING COURSES

The courses you are enrolled in are automatically transferred to KHAS Learn through the SPARKS system. Once your advisor approval is completed, your courses will appear in your KHAS Learn account.

Steps to Access Your Courses

1. Log in to the KHAS Learn homepage.

3. Alternatively, you can click on the My Courses tab in the top menu to access your courses.

If your courses do not appear in the system, it most likely means that your advisor approval has not yet been completed. In this case, check the SPARKS system or contact your advisor.

The screenshot shows the KHAS Learn dashboard interface. At the top, the navigation menu includes 'Home', 'Dashboard', 'My courses' (highlighted with a red box), 'MyKHAS', 'Sparks', 'KHAS Learn Mobile', and 'KHAS Learn Help'. Who can use it?

Only the instructor can post announcements. Students cannot write or reply to announcements.

Where to access?

You can access announcements by clicking the Announcements link in the Course Overview section of each course page. All announcements are also automatically sent to the student's university email address.

Why is it important?

Important information such as exam dates, assignment reminders, or class cancellations is shared here. It is strongly recommended that you check announcements regularly.

KHAS LEARN TOOLS

Attendance Tool

What is it?

The Attendance tool is a module that allows instructors to track student participation in classes. Students cannot mark their own attendance; records are entered by the instructor.

Who uses it?

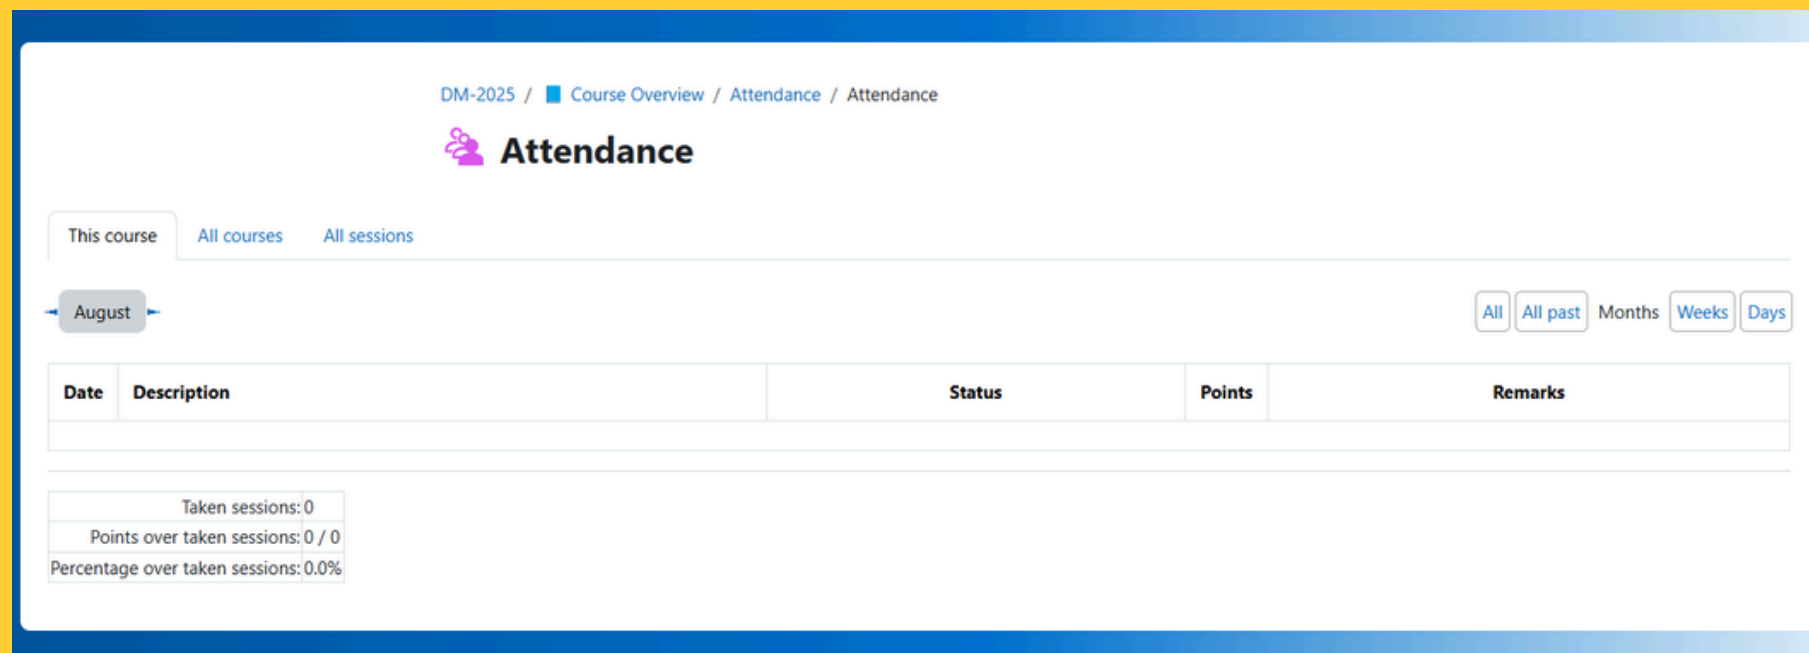

- It is not mandatory for every course.
- The Attendance tool is only actively used if the instructor enables it.
- If you do not see an Attendance link on your course page, it means attendance is not being taken for that course.

Where to access?

On the course page, click the Attendance link under the Course Overview section to view your attendance records. The list will show whether you were marked as Present or Absent for each session.

Why is it important?

In courses with mandatory attendance, your attendance record may affect your final grade. Students cannot change their attendance status; only the instructor's entries are displayed.
